ACTION

M. Ohkubo moved to shorten the time for the AS Constitution & Bylaws Revision to 12 minutes, seconded with no objections.

1. AS Constitution & Bylaws Revision

Senator J. Stover opened the topic by introducing the document representing Senator’s previous suggestions; reviewed changes suggested, and; suggested the forthcoming discussion address the one unresolved suggestion regarding candidate nomination timelines.

Senators suggested minor edits: line item 198 - only 7 committees listed and should reflect so; line item 256 to include plurality to read: appoint faculty members; edits were corrected.

A point of clarification was asked whether minor text edits could still be corrected if the Body voted to accept the revision today, which was clarified as correct.

T. Johnson moved to approve the revised Academic Senate Bylaws as amended, seconded.

Senators further commented that a compromise be made in regard to the unresolved item in Article

VIII, Section 2 {lines 564-82}, that instead of a two-week window, a three-week window be provided.

J. Fassler moved to amend the motion to include the suggestion of the wording to “three weeks” to Article VIII, Section 2 {lines 564—82} of the Bylaws, seconded.

A point of clarification sought whether the language should read three-weeks or 21 days; it was recommended for consistency that the wording remain three-weeks and it was also pointed out the original language was 30 days.

A roll-call vote was called, and the motion passed with 25 unanimous yes votes. The perfected motion now read: “To approve the revised AS Bylaws as amended with the addition of the suggested “three weeks” to the Article VIII, Section 2 {lines 564—82}.”

A roll call vote was called, and the motion passed with 24 yes votes and 1 no vote.

2. Strategic Planning: Goals & Objectives

President N. Persons thanked Senator J. Stover and AA N. Haworth for collecting and transcribing the senator suggestions and coalescing into one summary document for review.

Senator comments included: feels the only change that is necessary is re: Strategy 3 and changing the wording from social, economic, to “socio-economic” if that was the intended language; that the AS is not recommending to the Board; and a suggestion to make change to Strategy 4 to include education as it should pertain to the Mission, Vision, Values.

A point of clarification was asked what is needed from the Body at this time; President Persons indicated that she cannot direct the Body and it is up to them; that this will go to the Board as an information item next month (June 2023); and that the item was agenzed as based on the request to do so.

A point of clarification was asked whether senator suggestions were moving forward to the Board; it was clarified that it was now and that it was up to the AS Body to make the decision how to proceed.

J. Carlin Goldberg moved to direct the AS President request SRJC administration to strongly take into consideration all Senate suggestions and in the future revisions, work to bring to the Senate as part of the revising.

President Persons noted that nothing was ever asked of the Academic Senate from the Planning & Budget Council (PBC) or from the Board; stated the forthcoming Fall 2023 discussion regarding the Educational Master Plan will include the robust participation of the AS.

J. Carlin Goldberg withdrew her motion.

A senator further suggested making individual motions on each suggestion, as the Body may not agree on everything in the summary document.

Senior Director, Institutional Effectiveness, Research, Institutional Research (IERP) Dr. J.

Smotherman clarified that the term “social and economic” was correct in intention; the idea that there is a social responsibility related to the experiences students have in the county; that there's the economic lens in terms of “how are you addressing being able to physically be a part of the county in your economic stability?”; and clarified that the decision was to separate the social and the economic, because by considering them individually we collectively reach the socio-economic.

T. Jacobson moved to endorse the Strategic Planning: Goals and Objectives as originally presented; seconded.

A point of clarification was called whether this motion was to endorse the original Goals and Objectives, or if the Senate was endorsing the suggestions to be presented to the Board; it was clarified that this current motion was to endorse the original document as presented to the Body.

A. Donegan moved to amend the motion to include the suggested language to Strategy One, Goal 1: “Promoting robust professional development and maintaining professional development resources in support of discipline expertise as necessary for academic quality and culturally responsive andragogy as related to the first strategy”, seconded.

A point of clarification was made that number 10 of the 10+1 was not an area that the AS was to be relied primarily upon.

E. Schmidt motioned to extend time by 5 minutes, no opposition.

A call for the vote was made by J. Stover.

A point of order was called that there is still discussion to be had on the topic; it was noted that a call for the vote was called thus concluding the discussion on the topic and was not debatable; and acknowledged that you may contest the chair if needed.

J. Stover withdrew his call for the vote.

Further discussion included that the substantive change of the amendment is an appropriate one; otherwise discipline expertise would be left out of supporting excellent teaching; senators countered that the implication is there for discipline expertise as falls under the umbrella of excellent teaching.

A roll call vote was called, and the motion passed with 12 yes votes and 11 no votes with 2 abstentions.
