PLENARY RESOLUTIONS PROCESS

In order to ensure that deliberations are organized, effective, and meaningful, the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges uses the following resolution procedure:

- Pre-plenary resolutions are developed by the Executive Committee (through its committees) and submitted to the pre-plenary area meetings for review.
- Amendments and new pre-plenary resolutions are generated in the area meetings.
- The Resolutions Committee meets to review all pre-plenary resolutions and combine, reword, append, or render moot these resolutions as necessary.
- Resolutions and amendments must be submitted to the Resolutions Committee before the posted deadlines each day by using the webform available on the Resolutions Process webpage.
- New resolutions submitted on the second day of the plenary session are held to the next session unless the resolution is declared urgent by the Executive Committee.
- Resolutions and amendments are debated and voted upon in the general sessions on the last day of the plenary session by the delegates.
- All resources are available on the ASCCC website.

Prior to plenary session, it is each attendee's responsibility to read the following documents:

- Senate Delegate Roles and Responsibilities (found in Local Senates Handbook)
- Resolution Procedures (Part II in Resolutions Handbook)
- Resolution Writing and General Advice (Part III in Resolutions Handbook)

New delegates are strongly encouraged to watch the New Attendee Information pre-plenary webinar.

CONSENT CALENDAR

Resolutions may be placed on the Consent Calendar by the Resolutions Committee for any of the following criteria: 1) believed noncontroversial, 2) do not potentially reverse a previous position of the Academic Senate, 3) do not compete with another proposed plenary session resolution. Resolutions and any subsequent clarifying amendments that meet these criteria have been included on the Consent Calendar. If an amendment is submitted that proposes to substantially change a resolution on the Consent Calendar, that resolution will be removed from the Consent Calendar.

To remove a resolution from the Consent Calendar, please see the Consent Calendar section of the Resolutions Procedures for the plenary session. Reasons for removing a resolution from the Consent Calendar may include moving of a substantial amendment, a desire to debate the resolution, a desire to divide the motion, a desire to vote against the resolution, or even a desire to move for the adoption by the body by acclamation.

101 CURRICULUM

101.01 F24 Adopt Using Outcomes for the Course Outline of Record in Title 5

Whereas, Student learning objectives are building block skills required to demonstrate proficiency of the higher-level, broader student learning outcomes;

Whereas, California Code of Regulations Title 5 Section 55002(a)(3)<sup>1</sup> requires course objectives as part of the requirements for the course outline of record while the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC) standards<sup>2</sup> refer to student learning outcomes;

Whereas, The WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC) serves as the accreditation agency for the California State University and the University of California systems as well as many other universities in California and more globally, and WSCUC standards<sup>3</sup> also refer to outcomes; and

Whereas, The course content of the course outline of record (COR) provides the context for the outcomes, often aligning with the current use of objectives, perhaps adding unnecessary redundancy to the COR;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the California Community Colleges Chancellors Office and other system partners to adopt using student learning outcomes as requirements in Title 5 instead of course objectives in the course outline of record (COR) to reduce redundancy in the COR and align with accreditation requirements for the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California systems.

^101.01.01 F24 Amend Adopt Using Outcomes for the Course Outline of Record in Title 5

Replace the 4th Whereas:

~~Whereas, The course content of the course outline of record (COR) provides the context for the outcomes, often aligning with the current use of objectives, perhaps adding unnecessary redundancy to the COR;~~

Whereas, The implementation by California community colleges of the processes for student learning outcomes (SLO) development and assessment in response to ACCJC accreditation standards was often difficult, time-consuming and fraught with accreditation ramifications, and therefore any transition to replacing course objectives with SLOs in the course outline of record will not be trivial and likely require colleges to reimagine SLO assessment processes as well as curriculum development process, all of which will be difficult, time-consuming, and require extensive input from faculty as well as professional development resources for faculty;

Amend the 1st Resolved:

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the California Community Colleges Chancellors Office and other system partners to ~~adopt using~~ to explore the potential beneficial and adverse consequences of using student learning outcomes as requirements in Title 5 instead of course objectives in the course outline of record (COR) to reduce redundancy in the COR ~~and while being in alignment align with the accreditation standards of ACCJC and WSCUC requirements for the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California systems.; and~~

Add a 2nd Resolved:

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges provide professional development to and seek input from the faculty of the California community colleges regarding the potential replacement of course objectives with student learning outcomes through surveys, Academic Senate event breakout sessions, Academic Senate regional meetings, and other appropriate means, and report its findings prior to taking any positions of support of amending title 5 regulations to replace course objectives with student learning outcomes by the Fall 2025 Plenary Session.

+101.02 F24 Nutrition Science Integration in General Education Curriculum as a Cal-GETC Subject Area 5B Course

Whereas, Nutrition has historically been combined with Culinary Arts and Consumer & Family Studies, but the study of Nutrition has evolved to emphasize Human Nutrition, which integrates many subjects within Biological Sciences;

Whereas, Nutrition courses are appropriate for inclusion in the California General Education Transfer Curriculum (Cal-GETC) Subject Area 5B as evidenced by the required topics including the scientific method and its application, cellular and molecular biology, anatomy and physiology, biochemistry, biotechnology, microbiology, metabolism, immunology, public health, endocrinology, sustainability, and chemistry;

Whereas, Some California universities recognize Nutrition is not narrow in focus and have therefore appropriately placed it in their local university GE pattern as evidenced by UC Berkeley recognizing their own Introduction to Human Nutrition (NUSCTX 10) meets UC Berkeley Biological Science, Letters and Science (L&S) Breadth, and CSU Long Beach recognizing their own Introductory Nutrition (NUTR 132) meets CSULB's local GE Category B - Science, Technology and Mathematics/Quantitative Reasoning; and

Whereas, Cal-GETC Standards Version 1.0 (May 2023)<sup>4</sup> states Nutrition courses were determined to have a narrow or applied focus and therefore unacceptable for inclusion in Subject Area 5: Physical or Biological Sciences, and though Cal-GETC Standards Version 1.2 (May 2024)<sup>5</sup> no longer contains the exclusion language, Nutrition course proposals continue to be denied with the reason cited being that the proposal is too narrow in focus;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges urges and collaborates with our University of California and California State University partners to update their UC Transfer Eligibility Standards for Science and the Cal-GETC course review process to include Nutrition as a science eligible course for Cal-GETC Subject Area 5B.

^101.02.01 F24 Amend 101.02 F24 Nutrition Science Integration in General Education Curriculum as a Cal-GETC Subject Area 5B Course

Amend the 1st Resolved:

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of for the California Community Colleges urges and collaborates with our the Academic Senate of the University of California and California State University partners to update their UC Transfer Eligibility Standards for Science (UC-S) to allow Nutrition courses to be considered a science course for UC admission purposes; and, and the Cal-GETC course review process to include as a science eligible course for Cal-GETC Subject Area 5B.

Add a new 2nd Resolved:

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for the California Community Colleges urge and work with the Intersegmental Committee of Academic Senates (ICAS) to update the Cal-GETC standards to include guidance for allowing nutrition classes to be considered as a courses eligible for Cal-GETC Subject Area 5B Biological Sciences.

#101.02.02 F24 Amend 101.02 F24 Nutrition Science Integration in General Education Curriculum as a Cal-GETC Subject Area 5B Course

Amend the Resolved:

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges urges and collaborates with our University of California and California State University partners to update their UC Transfer Eligibility Standards for Science to allow Nutrition courses to be considered a science course for UC admission purposes, and the Cal-GETC course review process to include Nutrition as a science eligible course for Cal-GETC Subject Area 5B.

+101.03 F24 Cal-GETC External Examination Credit for Cambridge International Assessments

Whereas, Cambridge International, known as a global educational program taught in English in 160 countries, is rapidly expanding across the US, the National Student Clearinghouse reports hundreds of Cambridge International students in the US enrolled in California postsecondary institutions, and thousands of international Cambridge students annually matriculate to California colleges and universities;

Whereas, AS <sup>6</sup>Levels Exams are administered at the end of a one-year course of study comparable to an Advanced Placement Exam, A Level exams correspond to two years of in-depth study in a subject, and Cambridge International AS and A level exams allow students to validate college level learning outcomes comparable to formal educational settings, aligned with subject exams corresponding to General Education transfer pathways, therefore deserving recognition and unit credit in academic contexts;

<sup>6</sup> <https://www.cambridgeinternational.org/programmes-and-qualifications/cambridge-advanced/cambridge-international-as-and-a-levels/qualification/>

Whereas, The California General Education Transfer Curriculum<sup>7</sup> (Cal-GETC) has not yet included Cambridge International AS and A level exams<sup>8</sup> to meet transfer general education areas, and credit for prior learning is rigorously reviewed by external evaluators, with the ACE National Guide<sup>9</sup> (American Council on Education) recommending credit for passing Cambridge International A and AS Level exams; and

Whereas, While the University of California campuses recognize Singapore-Cambridge A levels, UCs still deny credit for Cambridge AS levels, exam grade thresholds vary, and without a current executive order for Cambridge credit from the California State University System, the CSU Office of the Chancellor as noted in the CSU Policy Guide<sup>10</sup> has recommended use of the ACE National Guide for awarding college credit based on prior learning assessment, thereby students encounter inequitable credit opportunities, and international students are increasingly aware that they can maximize the California Community Colleges' recognized pathways to successfully transfer to universities;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the faculty representatives of the University of California and the California State University through the Intersegmental Committee of Academic Senates to include the use of passing Cambridge International AS and A level exam grades to meet requirements for the California General Education Transfer Curriculum.

+101.04 F24 Automatic California General Education Transfer Curriculum (Cal-GETC) Approval of California Community Colleges (CCC) Ethnic Studies Courses

Whereas, Since fall 2021, students have been required to complete an ethnic studies course as part of an intersegmental general education transfer pattern with California State University General Education Breadth (CSU GE/B) Area F Ethnic Studies established effective fall 2021, and Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) Area 7 Ethnic Studies effective fall 2023, with both replaced by California General Education Transfer Curriculum (Cal-GETC) Area 6 Ethnic Studies effective fall 2025;

Whereas, It appears that California Community College (CCC) Ethnic Studies courses are being held to a higher standard for review and approval for transfer general education Ethnic Studies requirement than "comparable" California State University (CSU) Ethnic Studies courses that are approved for CSU campus-specific general education ethnic studies requirements;

Whereas, It has been reported that CCC course-to-course articulation requests for Ethnic Studies courses with CSU Area F approved courses have been denied by some CSU campuses if the CCC "comparable" course is not already approved for California State University General Education Breadth (CSU GE/B) Area F Ethnic Studies (which is aligned with Cal-GETC Area 6 Ethnic Studies effective fall 2025); and

Whereas, Requiring courses to have a prior intersegmental general education approval as a condition for a course to receive course-to-course articulation contradicts best practice of granting course-to-course articulation based primarily upon course content, course objectives and other course outline of record elements in a manner “comparable” to the CSU or UC course, not whether the course is approved for a transfer general education area;

Although the Cal-GETC Standards mentions Credit by Exam, it does not address other options for Cambridge International AS and A level exams.

Resolved, That Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the Intersegmental Committee of Academic Senates to strongly encourage California State University and University of California faculty to base course-to-course articulation agreements on course comparability, not transfer general education approval; and

Resolved, That Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the Intersegmental Committee of Academic Senates to develop and implement a policy, effective Fall 2025, that for any California Community College (CCC) Ethnic Studies course that is articulated to any California State University (CSU) course approved for any CSU campus ethnic studies general education requirement (Area F or Area 6), and any California Community College (CCC) ethnic studies course that is articulated to any University of California (UC) course approved for any UC campus ethnic studies general education and/or graduation requirements, be “automatically” approved for Cal-GETC Area 6.

#101.05 F24 UC Transferability of English for Speakers of Other Languages Oral Communications Courses

Whereas, The University of California special regulations<sup>11</sup> for courses in specific subject areas allow for English as a Second Language (ESL) courses to be transferable to the UC as long as they are the “highest levels of ESL, which prepare students for transferable English composition”;<sup>12</sup>

Whereas, The UC special regulations for courses in specific subject areas also summarily deny UC transferability for “courses that focus exclusively on listening, reading comprehension, or speaking (conversational) skills”

Whereas, The UC Transfer Articulation Regulations also state that “a course that is comparable to a lower-division course offered at one or more UC campuses”<sup>13</sup> is transferable, and UC Berkeley offers credit for lower division listening and speaking courses for ESL students through the College Writing Program, including College Writing 3H “ESL Listening and Speaking” and College Writing 9R “Academic and Public Speaking for Multilingual Students”<sup>14</sup>; and

Whereas, In light of AB 705 (Irwin, 2017)<sup>15</sup>, there has been a push to increase completion and transfer rates for students in the ESL sequence, and research by the Public Policy Institute of California has shown that one of the highest impact reforms that colleges can make is to offer transferable ESL classes, increasing the likelihood that ESL students will complete transfer-level requirements by 16 to 20 percentage points;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges request that the University of California update the University of California special regulations<sup>16</sup> for courses in specific subject areas to remove language prohibiting articulation of ESOL/ESL advanced oral communication classes.

#101.06 F24 No Implementation without Articulation: Safeguarding Student Success and Transfer Pathways in Future Common Course Numbering Phases

Whereas, Education Code Sections 66725-66725.5<sup>17</sup>, established by Assembly Bill No. 1111 (Berman)<sup>18</sup>, requires the implementation of a student-facing Common Course Numbering (CCN) system across the California Community Colleges by July 1, 2027, to streamline transfer pathways, reduce excess credit accumulation, and strengthen equitable transfer and student success;

Whereas, The recent decision to require all six Phase 1 CCN courses to be submitted for Cal-GETC review—rather than only the CCN public speaking course (COMM C1000) as initially expected—introduces significant risks to established IGETC and Cal-GETC approvals, potentially disrupting transfer pathways for over one million community college students undermining the core mission of the California Community College, California State University, and University of California systems to provide accessible, streamlined education, and creating confusion for students regarding the transferability of CCN courses;

Whereas, The current approach to CCN implementation, which requires the submission of potentially more than 1,000 courses across 115 colleges for Phase 1 articulation<sup>19</sup>, with anticipated exponential increases in Phases 2 and 3<sup>20</sup>, is administratively burdensome and may not align with the intended goals of AB 1111 to simplify the transfer process, particularly in the absence of guaranteed articulation agreements; and

Whereas, achieving true alignment between Common Course Numbering (CCN) and articulation requires careful coordination and engagement with the intersegmental articulation community, as failure to secure such alignment risks unintended consequences that could disrupt transfer pathways, create confusion, and ultimately harm students' educational progress and success, directly antithetical to the mission of CCN;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges calls for continued statewide collaboration on the development of Phase 2 and Phase 3 CCN Course Templates in an effort to meet mandated deadlines to implement CCN;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges advocates to the Chancellor's Office that all future phases of Common Course Numbering (CCN)—including Phases 2, 3, and any subsequent phases—develop CCN Course Templates that secure intersegmental articulation agreements with system partners prior to local implementation, to prevent unintended harm to students;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges advocates for an articulation-first approach to CCN implementation, ensuring that any local modifications to curriculum and course numbering do not add unnecessary complexity to the transfer process or compromise existing articulation agreements; and

Resolved, The Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges commits to ongoing collaboration with intersegmental partners, including CSU and UC stakeholders, to ensure that the implementation of Common Course Numbering serves the best interests of students and aligns with the core mission of California's public higher education systems.

<sup>19</sup> If all 115 colleges submitted updates COR templates for each of the 6 identified courses and the honors course companions then 1,380 courses must be evaluated for articulation.

<sup>20</sup> Phase 2 has 23 courses identified with expected honors course companions, potentially 5,290 courses requiring articulation evaluation. Phase this is projected to include at least 50 courses which could lead to more than 10,000 courses requiring articulation approval.

#101.07 F24 Delay Public-Facing Implementation of Common Course Numbering Until Transfer Agreements Are Established

Whereas, Assembly Bill 1111 (Berman 2021), enacted as Education Code 66725.5, mandates the adoption of a student-facing common course numbering system for all general education and transfer pathway courses by the California Community Colleges to streamline transfer processes and reduce excess credit accumulation by July 1, 2024, extended to July 1, 2027 by AB 3290 (Berman, 2024)<sup>21</sup>;

Whereas, The California Community Colleges Chancellor’s Office (CCCCO) communication ESLEI 24-22 (April 15, 2024)<sup>22</sup> emphasized that the vision calls for dramatically improved transfer and articulation across the state of California, supported by a resourced infrastructure for intersegmental faculty collaboration (including the California Community Colleges, UC, CSU, and AICCU);

Whereas, The CCCC Memo ESLEI 24-53 (September 6, 2024)<sup>23</sup> provided further guidance on the implementation process, emphasizing the importance of maximizing credit mobility for students, equitable transfer, and student success, detailing the need for a coordinated engagement of stakeholders, including faculty, administrators, staff, and system officials, to build cohesive academic plans and ensure that required courses transfer and apply to degree completion, and specifically noting that during the 2024–2025 Cal-GETC submission period, CCCs would not submit revisions of the six Phase I courses to CSU or UC via ASSIST for review (except for the course now known as COMM C1000) but instead, the Chancellor’s Office would provide revised course outlines to the system offices for use by the UC and CSU to test concepts and potentially revise articulation processes; and

Whereas, The CCCC Memo ESLEI 24-60 (October 24, 2024)<sup>24</sup> informed about a change in the guidance and clarified that CCN templates alone do not automatically confer specific articulation approval or general education approval with the CSU or UC as envisioned by the Common Course Numbering Task Force and therefore, submission and review of CORs for Cal-GETC in ASSIST would proceed as usual, with revisions to CCN Phase I courses needing to be submitted by December 2, 2024, for review for Fall 2025, which is likely to negatively impact student transfer when transferability and articulation varies between colleges and students encounter cases of courses not being recognized by UC and CSUs in the ways intended;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges urge the California Community Colleges Chancellor’s Office to explore the feasibility of delaying the public-facing implementation of all CCN courses, including those aligned with Phase I CCN Course Templates, until after articulation of the templates by CSU, UC, and independent colleges and universities is established, or no later than July 1, 2027 as established by AB 3290.

#101.08 F24 Phase-Out Process for Courses that Lose Course-to-Course Articulation

Whereas, There is a two-year phase-out period for courses that lose their University of California Transferable Course Agreement (UCTCA) or Cal-GETC articulations upon re-evaluation of existing articulations; however, no similar phase-out process exists for courses required for course-to-course department or major preparation articulation that lose those articulations, which can delay students' transfer timelines and may necessitate completing major preparation courses after transferring, thereby affecting enrollment in preparatory courses at University of California or California State University; and

Whereas, A two-year phase-out timeline allows California Community College faculty the opportunity to continue to prepare students for transfer while revising a course outline of record (COR) for re-review by a University of California or California State University campus that revokes course-to-course or major articulation and also simultaneously to other forms of articulation such as UC TCA, C-ID and Cal-GETC if re-review is also necessary after COR revision;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the Intersegmental Committee of the Academic Senates, the Academic Senate of the California State University, and the University of California Academic Senate to define system-wide two-year phase-out timelines for courses that lose course-to-course or major articulation at a California State University or University of California campus.

#101.09 F24 Use CCN Templates for CCC System Level Transferability and General Education (Cal-GETC) Review and Approval

Whereas, Current University of California (UC) transferability (UCTCA) and IGETC (soon to be Cal-GETC) review processes are dependent on submissions of individual course outlines of record (CORs) from California community colleges, resulting in variances in approvals across the 115 credit-granting community colleges that creates an array of UC transferability and general education (GE) approvals that, at best, is confusing to students and, at worst, causes students to take courses that do not satisfy the expected transfer or GE requirements because of the college at which a course was taken;

Whereas, The Common Course Numbering Task Force 2023 Report<sup>25</sup> sets a new vision for California Community College system-level articulation, to include “a framework for which course elements must be identical or equivalent for a course to be numbered the same with consistent transferability and applicability” (p. 4, Task Force Report, 2023); and

Whereas, The vision for consistent transferability and applicability can only be achieved with a shift from individual college course outlines of record as the documents being reviewed to the Common Course Numbering Course Templates as the system-level document being reviewed, a change that can only be accomplished by California State University and University of California agreeing to update their transferability and articulation policies and processes and by independent college and universities agreeing to do the same for their policies and processes;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges, through the Intersegmental Committee of Academic Senates (ICAS), request California State University and University of California academic senate leaders work with their system leadership to update transferability and articulation policies and processes to rely upon Common Course Numbering Course Templates, when available, for system-level review and approval of coursework from California Community Colleges; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges urge faculty and administrators at independent colleges and universities to work with their institutional leadership to update articulation policies and processes to rely upon Common Course Numbering Course Templates, when available, for system-level review and approval of coursework from California Community Colleges.

*#101.10 F24 Develop Clear Guidelines for Transferability and Articulation Processes

Whereas, the processes and criteria for system-level transferability and general education submission, review, and approval are unclear, as demonstrated by the inconsistent articulation results for ethnic studies courses, where many were denied approval for California State University Area F, highlighting inconsistencies in applying expected standards;

Whereas, Processes for transferability and articulation of California Community College courses to the individual institutions of the California State University, University of California, and independent colleges and universities are inconsistent, with wide variance of required elements within the course outline of record expected across universities and departments; and

Whereas, A consistent and clear process for transferability and articulation with system partners could help streamline the articulation process and benefit students by providing more course options that satisfy general education and major preparation requirements;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the Intersegmental Committee of Academic Senates, the Academic Senate for the California State University, the University of California Academic Senate, and other system partners to develop clear guidelines for transferability and articulation processes to provide more consistency for general education, course to course, and major preparation articulation; challenges still exist, such as persistent workforce shortages<sup>28</sup> and resource gaps<sup>29</sup>, highlighting the need for additional systemic support;

Whereas, Vision 2030 emphasizes the need for flexible workforce training, apprenticeship development, and industry partnerships, which are essential to creating pathways to high-skill, high-wage job opportunities for diverse communities, underscoring the necessity for robust technical assistance and training to effectively implement these initiatives; and

Whereas, There is a critical need<sup>30</sup> for additional Regional Supplemental Instruction (RSI) funds to support non-traditional Early Childhood Education/Education programs apprenticeships, which will expand access to training and resources for a wider range of participants, including those in underserved communities<sup>31</sup>;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges advocate for enhanced systemic support and resources, including opportunities for faculty professional learning inclusive of workshops, webinars, and collaborative training sessions, to further strengthen program impact, enhancing their ability to support students and adapt to evolving industry needs;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges advocate for increased systemic funding for the development and implementation of effective Early Childhood Education/Education programs, as well as the establishment of Technical Assistance Providers (TAPs) to provide essential guidance and expertise so that programs meet the evolving workforce demands and align with state economic and educational goals;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges collaborate with the California Community College Chancellor's Office to actively promote equitable access to apprenticeship opportunities for historically underrepresented populations in ECE/EDU programs by advocating for focused outreach initiatives, providing resources for equitable program design, and supporting innovative teaching methods, including generative AI, to enhance learning experiences and improve educational outcomes.

*#105.06 F24 Reevaluation of Data Analysis and Implementation Guidelines for AB 1705

Whereas, The California Community College Chancellor's Office definition<sup>61</sup> of "highly unlikely to succeed" for mathematics courses has changed from the implementation of Assembly Bill 705 (AB 705) to Assembly Bill 1705 (AB 1705), specifically where the most recent AB 1705 guidance memorandum<sup>62</sup> establishes a low 15% throughput rate for Calculus 1, while also setting a significantly higher benchmark for any local alternative requiring transfer level preparatory courses;

Whereas, Research from the National Center for Education Statistics<sup>63</sup> indicates that approximately 30% of students often change their majors and academic pathways, which highlights the necessity of offering preparatory courses that support diverse student needs and pathways, particularly for those transitioning into STEM fields, and illustrates that using throughput as a measure of success for STEM pathway students can lead to a misinterpretation of the data;

Whereas, The RP Group's analysis in their report<sup>64</sup> titled, "Preparatory Pathways and STEM Calculus Completion" is used to justify the most recent AB 1705 guidance, and the report concludes, "No group was deemed highly unlikely to succeed in STEM Calculus 1 when directly enrolled and given two years, regardless of high school GPA or math preparation"; and

Whereas, The California State University Math Council has echoed concerns in a resolution<sup>65</sup> advocating for the University of California and the California State University to jointly commission a comprehensive peer review of RP Group data analysis used by the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges advocates for the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office to revise the definition and threshold of "highly unlikely to succeed";

Whereas, Phase I of implementation began in Spring of 2024 with course templates being made available in September 2024 with a due date for submission identified as December 1st, 2024, and an effective date of Fall 2025, demonstrating a lack of consideration for 1) established curriculum timelines and processes at California Community Colleges and 2) the ramifications these updates may have on ASSIST and Cal-GETC updates in addition to the additional stress this puts on a system already burdened by required updates from AB 928 (Berman), AB 705 (Irwin), AB 1705 (Irwin), and introducing Ethnic Studies requirements;
