Chapter: 5 – Student Services

Title: Intercollegiate Athletics

Code: BP 5700 (SRJC Policy 3.24 - Athletics)

Adopted: December 12, 1995

Last Revised: May 8, 2001

Last Reviewed: January 10, 2012

The District shall maintain an organized program for students in intercollegiate athletics. The District will offer opportunities for participation in athletics equally to all students regardless of gender expression. The purpose of Intercollegiate athletics is to create the opportunity for students to participate in an environment that encourages personal growth, improved self-esteem, discipline, assertiveness, persistence, sensitivity to others, and emotional control through a program of intercollegiate competition.

The Superintendent/President or designee shall ensure that the athletics program complies with federal and state law; the California Community Colleges Athletic Association (CCCAA) Constitution, Bylaws and Sport Championship Handbooks; and appropriate Conference Constitution regarding student athlete participation.
