

CONSTITUTION OF THE SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE ACADEMIC SENATE

PREAMBLE:

This Academic Senate is created to secure the professional rights and to carry out the responsibilities of the faculty of the Sonoma County Junior College District. The faculty have the traditional right of college faculty to participate in the governance of the college. As specialists in specific disciplines and as experienced instructors, the participation of the faculty in the governance of the college is essential for the district's pursuit of its mission. As professionals, the faculty have a right and a duty to set professional and ethical standards for the conduct of their profession and to promote the excellence of their profession. In order to achieve these ends and in accordance with Title 5 of the California Administrative Code, Subchapter 2, Sections 53200-53205, this Academic Senate is established.

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1:

The organization shall be known as the Santa Rosa Junior College Academic Senate, hereinafter called the Senate.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSES, DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 1:

To promote the professional interests of the faculty of the Sonoma County Community College District and to participate in the collegial governance of the college.

Section 2:

To provide the faculty with a representative body to carry out all responsibilities delegated to a community college academic senate by state law, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, and the Board of Trustees as outlined in the Bylaws.

Section 3:

To promote communication and mutual understanding among the faculty.

Section 4:

To promote the development and maintenance of teaching excellence within the framework of academic freedom and professional responsibilities and ethics.

Section 5:

To advance the goals of inclusivity, diversity, equity, accessibility, and anti-racism (IDEAA) in all 10+1 matters.

ARTICLE III: THE ELECTORATE

Section 1:

The Electorate means those who may run for a senate seat, vote in a senate election in their area, and vote for senate president. The electorate consists of all faculty working in one of two conditions: A. Contract, consisting of tenured, tenure-track, and temporary full-time faculty; and B. Associate, consisting of associate or hourly faculty who are currently employed by the district or have offer rights. Personnel whose job requires an administrative or supervisory credential or who are placed on the administrative salary schedule shall not be members of the senate.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP AND ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

Section 1:

Any member of the electorate can run for a seat on the Senate.

Section 2:

The Senate shall consist of 28 senators elected as representatives and any officers who are elected at-large.

Section 3:

The 28 elected representatives shall represent at least 13 different areas of the electorate. The method of division into the ~~13~~ areas shall be specified in the Bylaws. Six positions will be reserved for election by the associate electorate as specified in the Bylaws.

Section 4:

Senators shall be elected for two-year terms and will begin serving the first day of the semester following the election. Half the Senate will be elected each year.

Section 5:

The officers of the Senate shall be members of the Senate and include the President, President-elect, a Vice President, Executive Secretary, Equity Advocate, At-Large Representative, Associate Representative, Past President, and others as deemed necessary.

Section 6:

The President-elect shall be a ~~full-time~~ contract, ~~tenure-track~~ faculty member, and a

91 current or former senator. The President-elect will be elected at-large by the electorate.
92 After serving one year, the President-elect will assume the duties of the President for
93 two years. In the election cycle at the end of the first year, the President may run for a
94 continuing term of either one or two years; if elected to a third year, at the end of the 95 second year of the first term, the President may run for a fourth year. The President will
96 not serve more than four consecutive years. After completion of the terms of President,
97 the President ~~will~~ may serve as Past President for up to two years. ~~The Past President~~
98 ~~may be excused from the second year as Past President by agreement of the Executive~~
99 ~~Committee.~~

100 101 Section 7:

102
103 The Vice President, Executive Secretary, Equity Advocate, At-Large Representative,
104 and Associate Representative shall be elected from among the area representatives
105 and shall serve for two years.

106 107 Section 8:

108
109 The duties of elected representatives and the senate officers and their methods of 110 election shall be specified in the Bylaws.

111 112 ARTICLE V: VACANCIES AND RECALL

113 114 Section 1:

115
116 When vacancies occur, upon direction of the Senate, new members or officers shall be
117 ~~nominated and elected by the appropriate constituency as soon as possible within that~~
118 ~~semester~~ appointed by the Senate President in consultation with the Executive
119 Committee. Faculty members recruited from the representative area will be given
120 priority when filling the seat, and the Executive Committee will also strongly consider
121 the goals of IDEAA when making appointments.

122 123 Section 2:

124
125 When a Senator is on authorized leave, the Senate President in consultation with the 126 Executive Committee may appoint a replacement to serve until the Senator returns to 127 active service.

128 129 Section 3:

130
131 The recall of a Senator shall be accomplished by presentation to the Senate of a petition
132 signed by a majority of the electorate. Upon the receipt of such petition at a Senate
133 meeting, the Senate shall declare the seat vacant.
134

ARTICLE VI: AMENDMENTS, INITIATIVE, AND REFERENDUM

Section 1:

The constitution may be amended by the following initiative processes:

Clause 1: A petition signed by ten percent of the electorate shall be presented to the Senate, or the Senate may vote to submit the amendment(s) to the electorate.

Clause 2: If approved by two-thirds of those voting, the amendment(s) shall become effective on the date specified in the amendment(s).

Section 2:

Other initiative measures shall proceed as follows:

Clause 1: The Senate shall place on the ballot an initiative or referendum measure signed by ten percent of the electorate.

Clause 2: If approved by two-thirds of the votes cast, the measure shall receive appropriate action of the Senate.

Section 3:

Future State legislation or directives affecting Community College Academic Senates shall be presented to the electorate in the form of constitutional amendments.

Section 4:

The President of the College and the Board of Trustees shall be consulted in advance of any major changes in this document.

Revised: 05/93, 03/97, 05/97, 11/02, 05/17