

The current language for Strategic Goal 1 Objective 1 states:

"Promote robust professional development and maintain professional development resources on culturally responsive andragogy and practices that are annually reviewed and updated."

The Academic Senate recommendation is:

"Promoting robust professional development and maintaining professional development resources in support of discipline expertise as necessary for academic quality and culturally responsive andragogy as related to the first strategy."

Dr. Garcia is in agreement with the spirit of the recommendation and offered the following:

"Promote robust professional development and maintain professional development resources for discipline expertise and culturally responsive andragogy and practices that are annually reviewed and updated."